[illegible] had abundant [illegible] which his [illegible] the feeling [illegible] with the [illegible] States? But [illegible] them [illegible] guilt [illegible] punishment.

The Cotton Trade with Mexico.—The editorial correspondent of the New Orleans Picayune writes as follows of a late visit to Braunfels, Texas: "I was astonished to see the life and bustle in New Braunfels [illegible] coming in and [illegible] going out [illegible] everywhere. The [illegible] house of [illegible] Mexico is purchasing largely in the Mexican market [illegible] Mexican dollars [illegible] American [illegible] Rio Grande.

A French [illegible] in Mexico is also engaged in the transportation [illegible] wagons, drawn by twelve mules, and I was told that he loaded no less than twenty-four bales on one of his mammoth vehicles, and that he attracted as much attention [illegible] He has been heretofore hauling cotton from Matamoras to the interior of Mexico, but is now going regularly into the business [illegible] If the war is to go on and the blockade continues long, Cotton must [illegible] and Mr. Memminger [illegible] will [illegible] the treasury. He will disburse hundreds of thousands of dollars this year all in Mexican castings."

There can be no doubt where this cotton goes. [illegible] will "correct the procedure" shortly.

The Presidential Levee.—The Washington correspondent of the Alta speaks thus of the President's Levee: "After innumerable difficulties of backward and forward movements we slowly passed the gate, and then our hurry was over. But we all had to travel the same path—through the vestibule into the blue room where father Abraham with smiling face [illegible] with glove and with an earnest [illegible] pushed us along [illegible] the lady [illegible] with a smile and [illegible] into the green room where we were permitted to rest a moment; into the [illegible] east room where the crowd lingered [illegible]—everybody for once [illegible] through the window, into the highway again. Still it was a [illegible] performance and one that required muscle and perseverance [illegible] But I cannot [illegible] very [illegible] and warm [illegible] cut, thankful [illegible] to escape from such a throng. But it seems [illegible] kind-hearted President [illegible] submits to it with the [illegible]"

Rebellion on the Question of Dry Goods.—The young ladies of a popular seminary in Maine met recently [illegible] justified by the more than [illegible] land toward the loyal party in this country, they would neither purchase nor wear manufactures of English manufacture for clothing. OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

[illegible]

MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 10, 1862.

☞ See first and fourth pages.

A Great Mormon Movement

France, England and Spain seized the moment of rebellion in the Southern States to make aggressions on Mexico. On second [illegible] supposed the two first named governments would also make war upon the United States while the same rebellion is in progress, as an opportune moment for breaking up our Union and reducing the influence and power of our country among the nations of the world. But France and England have shown true wisdom in not gratifying the wishes of our [illegible] ists. Brigham Young and his gang—supposing that our Government would now, under the rebellion pressure, yield to their wishes, have pursued a policy to drive off the the officers of the General Government in Utah Territory, convened a convention, framed a constitution, and have given notice that polygamous Utah must be admitted into the Union as an independent State, or that she will remain out of the Union as an independent nation. The new State is to be called Deseret. The constitution will be voted on by the people on the first Monday of March—on which day is to be held the general election at which a governor, lieut. governor, representative to Congress, and members of the General Assembly, are to be elected. The first meeting of the General Assembly is to be called by proclamation of the Governor. Doubtless the constitution will be accepted by the people—as it is sanctioned by Young and his other colleagues.

The same convention that formed the constitution unanimously made the following nominations for the consideration of the electors at the first general election under the constitution: For Governor, Brigham Young; for Lieutenant Governor, Heber C. Kimball; for Member of Congress, John M. Bernhisel.

No nominations were made for Senators in Congress, but the names of Hooper and Kinney were mentioned. Brigham however will take charge of that matter in time.

The Deseret News, which is the organ of Brigham, in speaking of the convention says:

There was a determination of purpose manifested by the delegates, collectively and individually, to carry out the designs and wishes of the people in the institution of a State Government, to supersede the Territorial form of rule unconstitutionally imposed upon them by Congress, as all who were present will testify; and that in the event of the request for admission into the family of States being refused, they feared not the consequences of throwing off the Federal yoke and assuming the right of self government, of which they have so long been deprived.

The manner in which the last Administration played into the hands of the Mormons and submitted to indignities cast not only upon them but the country, was disgraceful to the nation. Mr. Buchanan sent a large military force to Utah to compel the people there to submit to the Government and to obey its laws. When hundreds of miles from thence it permitted Mormons to seize and burn their trains and to capture and rob our troops, if not murder them. When the forces arrived in Utah, at the seat of Mormon power, indignities were still heaped upon them, and they were kept there in perfect inaction—not permitted to sustain the officers sent there by Government in their duties—apparently merely remaining there for the purpose of spending money for the benefit of the Mormons. Finally, they were ordered to California—and made the laughing stock of Brigham and his Saints.

This policy of the last Administration—and the present condition of the country—doubtless has encouraged the deluded gang to believe that they can force Congress to admit Utah into the Union as an independent State. They would do well to recollect that they are not now to deal with James Buchanan, the thief Floyd, or any of that class of men. Utah will not be admitted as a State with her polygamy, and if she persists in rebellion she will be severely punished—and the gangrene of Mormonism found in Utah be removed.

Caleb Cushing's Opinion on the Circulation of Incendiary Newspapers and Jeff Davis Indorsement

[illegible]

[illegible]

Jeff Davis, in referring to the opinion of the Attorney General, thus endorses it:

"The Attorney General, in [illegible] sustains the conclusion of the President and the Postmaster [illegible] that we shall be saved from any further agitation [illegible]."

THE ADVERTISER'S SELF RESPECT.—On Monday, March 3d, the Advertiser appeared with a new editor. In his "salutatory" he said:

"Of accusations without foundation, and of personalities, our columns shall be at all times debarred, as such are far from being the characteristic of the profession."

JOSEPH L. ALLISON.

In the same paper, five days after the editor of the Advertiser came before the public with this pledge, he makes a low, vulgar, personal attack on the individual whom he chooses to consider, without authority, the editor of the Oregonian.

When the Times stated that the name of Mr. Allison was used, merely as a head under which to publish the opinions of others, we hoped that paper was mistaken, and supposed the new editor was a MAN, who would have some regard to pledges he had voluntarily made. The history of five days shows him to be a mere effigy of straw, without self respect, without decent regard to his pledges—set up to be a mere tool, required to fill himself with the cast off offal of others. We make this statement with regret, because we had a right to expect better things of him. The late editor of the Oregonian, we are authorized to say, cares nothing for the miserable personal blackguard effusions of the Advertiser.

The Vancouver Telegraph of Friday, heads the late news from the East, claiming Union successes as GLORIOUS NEWS.

Its secession friend, the Portland Advertiser, says of the news thus hailed as "Glorious" by the Telegraph:

"For journalist or private individual who can raise a shout of joy over such news, for either section, is lost to all that makes the heart of humanity [illegible]—and is no more than an enemy covered with hideous treason to his country."

This is the likeness of the Telegraph as drawn by the Advertiser. Will the editor of the Telegraph acknowledge it to be true?

The Telegraph editor did not comprehend the duties which would be required of him when he acknowledged fealty to the party which control the Advertiser.

The Telegraph of Friday endorses the Advertiser as "right on the goose." They can settle the "goose question" to suit themselves.

On the receipt of the news yesterday morning, the stars and stripes, the glorious and bright emblem of National Independence, product of the Constitution, was thrown to the breeze upon almost every prominent flag-staff in our city. We honor, yes, we love that flag, and in our admiration of the principles which it indicates we stand upon no back ground to any one.—Advertiser.

Such professional love for the "stars and stripes, the glorious and bright emblem of National Independence," is about as consistent as the avowal of the pugilist, who is loud in his declarations of "love and admiration" for the man who succeeds in giving him a sound beating.

The Advertiser must have had reference to the flag of its own household—bearing seven stars and three stripes.

The Yreka Journal, in noticing the favorable news from the East, makes this very appropriate quotation:

Conquer we must, for our cause it is just,
And this be our motto, "In God is our trust."
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Chicago [illegible] Secretary Stanton has so heavy [illegible] California [illegible]

If we had furnaces at the iron mountain above [illegible] which pig iron could be had, we could have a government foundry and armory in Oregon.

The following paragraph in the Yreka Journal will give some idea of the Salmon river fever in that neighborhood:

"SALMON RIVER DICTIONARY.—Mr. William R. [illegible] is preparing a pigeon hole dictionary, table of distances and their necessary information concerning the new mines, which will be issued from this office by Saturday next. No person going should be without a copy."

The Eugene Republican says that, "Many men who are in a situation to do a handsome business at home, are making haste to go to Salmon without securing even tenants for their farms, and some without even leaving their farms seeded."

The Yreka Journal says that Salmon river dust assayed there, has been found to be worth $15.64 per ounce, and adds—"Parties desirous of accompanying the Yreka expedition to Salmon river are requested to be fully armed and equipped."

What is to be done with the rebel prisoners? 15,000 taken at Fort Donelson, 3,000 at Roanoke Island, and 2,000 in Missouri. The [illegible] tern jails and penitentiaries will soon be full.

The last stock-destroying winter—It disposed of the surplus stock of Oregon.

A field for useful enterprise—the cleaning up of the streets of Portland.

A reward for industry—Receiving five cents per pound for a crop of timothy.

An almost unheard of [illegible] cattle browsing on young apple, pear and plum trees—A scene likely to be witnessed in Oregon the present year, the proprietor gone to the mines.

A sensible attempt to make money—A man going to work in the mines who was good for nothing to work at home.

Capt Ankeny will let the work out by contract and no money will be required from the subscribers until the trail is accepted by the committee consisting of Messrs L L Quimby A C R Shaw and R J Ladd. It is hoped that the next Legislature will pass a law for making the route a State wagon road.

RETURN OF THE STEAMER JULIA.—On Saturday last the steamer Julia attempted to reach the Cascades, but was compelled to return early in the day without success. She got as far as Cotton Wood Point, about thirty miles from the mouth of the Willamette where a large quantity of floating ice was encountered, through which she cut her way for a distance of some five miles to a point called Rooster Rock, whence she was compelled to return on account of the solidness of the ice. A few days more will perhaps remove the obstruction, until then, our friends must be patient.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The March term of the Circuit Court for this County will commence its session this morning, the Hon A I Wait presiding. The following is the number of causes on the docket: law causes, 60; chancery, 50; criminal, 20.

WILL SAIL.—The fine clipper bark Samuel Merritt, Williams, master, sails for Oak Point to-day to receive a cargo of lumber for the San Francisco market.

A SELL.—Everybody got sold last night, between seven and eight o'clock. Some one not having the fear of the law or anger of reporters before them, discharged a cannon on the wharf—making people believe that the steamer had arrived. Acts of this kind are very annoying, indeed and persons guilty of them should be punished.

FIGHT NEAR FORT WISE.—The Rocky Mountain News, published at Denver City, Colorado Territory, under date of January 11th, says:

A report has just reached the city that a fight had occurred near Fort Wise, between the Indians and the Volunteer troops who left here some two weeks since to garrison that post. We have not learned particulars but hear that twenty eight men of Captain Sanborn's company were killed. The party cut off was out some distance from the Fort on a scout. Every one was killed.

The Eugene Republican says—"We are informed that there is a band of secessionists on Long Tom organized and armed, and sworn to resist any attempt to collect the income tax. They may, in their rash ignorance call down justice upon their heads which is the last they would pray for."—This is the result of the teachings of such secession papers as the Corvallis Disunion and Albany Secesh.

OVERLAND MAIL.—Charles Watrous the Mail Agent of this State who left yesterday via the Overland route to Washington will endeavor to have the newspaper mail separated from the letter mail which will cause the latter mail to be delivered in sixteen days in Summer, and twenty in Winter.—Sacramento Union.

Private letters from Rio de Janeiro state that Gen Webb the Federal American Minister to Brazil, had sent in a demand to the Brazilian Government that the Governor of Maranham should be superseded for having allowed coal to be supplied to the privateer Sumter.—London Times.

The Vancouver Telegraph has been told that its Portland neighbors are re[illegible]ting the small pox as prevailing at Vancouver—with the view of preventing people from going to that place. Pretty hard story this. We never heard it before.

Board of Delegates.—The Board of Delegates will meet this evening at [illegible] o'clock precisely.

THE GRAPE.—Mr. Morrison made some interesting remarks in the Assembly on Friday, on the history of the grape in California. But we think he was in error in stating that till after the American conquest [illegible] there was only one kind of grape in California, and that of the kind introduced by the Spanish missionaries about 1770. The Sonoma grape differs from the Los Angeles grape, and has been in the country at least thirty-five years—whether longer we do not know. None of the Sonoma variety were cultivated at Los Angeles, and none of the Los Angeles at Sonoma, while California was under Mexican dominion. Mr. Morrison gave it as his opinion that there was scarcely a foot of land in [illegible] in 2,500 (not 8,000, as it appeared in the [illegible] reported) [illegible] of the sea, that [illegible] suited to the cultivation of the grape. We fear that in this he overestimates very much. Many [illegible] think that not one [illegible] ten will produce grapes [illegible].

A MONKEY'S FUN.—A monkey tied to a stake in the West Indies, was robbed by the Johnny Crows of his food, and he concocted the following plan of punishing the thieves. He feigned death, and lay perfectly motionless on the ground, near to his stake. The birds approached by degrees, and got near enough to steal his food, which he allowed them to do. This he repeated several times, till they became so bold as to come within reach of his claws. He calculated his distance, and laid hold of one of them. Death was not his plan of punishment. He was more refined in his cruelty. He plucked every feather out of the bird, and then let him show himself to his companions. He made a man of him, according to the ancient definition—"Man, a biped without feathers."

The following information is given for the benefit of young sailors. We don't know what ulta-marine wrote it, but we suspect it was Secretary Welles: The Sternpost is not a weekly paper. The Berths on board do not necessarily add to the census. The Hatchways are not hens' nest. Pugilists are not engaged to Box the Compass. The Boatswain does not pipe all hands with a meerschaum. The Braces are not suspenders. The Deck is not a pack of cards. The men are not beat to quarters with a club. The bow of a ship is no evidence of its politeness.

Some years since, a new firm of dry goods dealers in Ohio, on their return from the "City" with their first purchase, sent out a large number of handbills, in which was this sentence: "But not to pile up the agony of Western eloquence, we state with great confidence that ladies attired in our new style of fall and winter goods will find the effect so rejuvenating that all the cares incident to domestic life will be as little [illegible] as kissing the dew drops from the roses of beauty that bloom in perennial fragrance in the Elysian fields of ecstatic love!"

We once knew a Quaker who was forced into a fight with a quarrelsome neighbor. After a little scuffling, the Quaker's nose came into a violent contact with the other man's fist, causing our friend's nose to bleed profusely. Quaker became enraged, and immediately took his opponent down, and, getting astride him, addressed him thus: "Friend, I won't hurt thee, neither will I strike thee, but I will let my nose bleed in thy face;" which he did entirely to his own satisfaction and to the great disgust of his adversary. The Quaker's victory was complete.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

Private Medical & Surgical Institute,

SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY,

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary; the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Genito-Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

☞ Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

OFFICE HOURS—From 9 A. M. to 8 P. M.

☞ Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Consultations by letter or otherwise FREE.

Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases, the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During [illegible] years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who in the last stages of the above-mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. As a permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims [illegible] years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures.—Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the hands of disease, who having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedy, and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. The hundreds of severe cases treated and cured [illegible] and we commend them to the attention of all afflicted:

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of benefiting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of uncontrollable passion in youth, depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the daily avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but alas, after a few weeks, and in several instances months of their treatment, I found to my utter and sorrow that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming, and I was told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence. I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear, and my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful, exciting and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and in fact, in two months after having consulted the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hands. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that once under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

B. F. FILLMORE.

State of California, County of San Francisco.
Subscribed and sworn to before me, this seventh day of April, A. D. 1856. Signed,
[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

MARYSVILLE, June 3d, 1856.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Dear Sir: I have used the last of your medicines, and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well, except that I have not entirely got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I called at your Institute, with my constitution as I thought, broken entirely, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do something to ease the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my nerves, so that I would not get excited and tremble at everything. Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from these symptoms, and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the entire stoppage of those emissions, which you said were principally the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having fully gotten strength, I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, and think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited, you may put this letter in the newspapers. Believe me gratefully yours,

THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of hospitality also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with in attempting it, soon became such as I was then led to believe as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet despised the misfortune of my life and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my misery. While in this state, and having previous to my affliction [illegible] the wants of life, I once more was induced to attend [illegible] a physician, and, by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services; regardless of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God, I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet to [illegible] of my indebtedness, I consider it only to [illegible] to make this case public, in order that [illegible] in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
